

Federal Reserve System

§ 211.42

activities of an export trading company that is a subsidiary of the investor if the export trading company expands its activities beyond those described in the initial notice to include:

(A) Taking title to goods where the export trading company does not have a firm order for the sale of those goods;

(B) Product research and design;

(C) Product modification; or

(D) Activities not specifically covered by the list of activities contained in section 4(c)(14)(F)(ii) of the BHC Act.

(ii) Such an expansion of activities shall be regarded as a proposed investment under this subpart.

(b) Time period for Board action. (1) A proposed investment that has not been disapproved by the Board may be made 60 days after the Reserve Bank accepts the notice for processing. A proposed investment may be made before the expiration of the 60-day period if the Board notifies the investor in writing of its intention not to disapprove the investment.

(2) The Board may extend the 60-day period for an additional 30 days if the Board determines that the investor has not furnished all necessary information or that any material information furnished is substantially inaccurate. The Board may disapprove an investment if the necessary information is provided within a time insufficient to allow the Board reasonably to consider the information received.

(3) Within three days of a decision to disapprove an investment, the Board shall notify the investor in writing and state the reasons for the disapproval.

(c) Time period for investment. An investment in an export trading company that has not been disapproved shall be made within one year from the date of the notice not to disapprove, unless the time period is extended by the Board or by the appropriate Reserve Bank.

(d) Time period for calculating revenues. For any export trading company that commenced operations two years or more prior to August 23, 1988, the four-year period within which to calculate revenues derived from its activities under § 211.32(a) of this part shall be deemed to have commenced with the beginning of the 1988 fiscal year for that export trading company. For all other export trading companies, the four-year period shall commence with the first fiscal year after the respective export trading company has been in operation for two years.

Subpart D—International Lending Supervision
